7 Principles of Unitarian Universalism
Affirm & Promote:
 The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
 Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
 Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
 A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
 The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
 The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
 Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

The path of a musician, especially a folk musician, is not an easy one. As one fairly successful folkie has said, “You sort of take this vow of poverty.” The same is true of many other artistic paths. But we all need, as Joseph Campbell said, to “follow our bliss.” Phil and Susan will explore the rewards of continuing to follow this often arduous path, and by doing so hope to encourage others to follow their bliss as well. ~ February Sky
