7 Principles of Unitarian Universalism
Affirm & Promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

BREAKING NEWS: The 6th Circuit Court of Appeals just upheld Michigan’s marriage ban. This means loving and committed same-sex couples will continue to suffer without the protections and respect only marriage can provide.

Happenin' @ the MqtUU Meeting House This Week...

The Reflection & Learning Project on Israel-Palestine for the fall will continue with Steadfast Hope for the second Sunday in a series of four. The focus for this week's dvd and discussion will be "Can We Call It Apartheid?" and "Who Profits?" If you missed last week, join us anyhow. There will be some lunch snacks, but feel free to brown-bag it, too. The session will run from 1:15 to 2:30 pm.

Volunteers Needed

The Beatles Invasion Weekend Fundraiser hosted MqtUU member Dave Stensaas, is seeking volunteers to help collect donations on Saturday Nov. 8th between 5:45 p.m. and 9:15 p.m. at the Ore Dock Brewery (118 W. Spring St., behind Getz's, in Marquette). The MqtUU is a listed sponsor of the event for helping with this element of the event, with Gail Griffith and the social action committee offering MqtUU support. Volunteers are asked to come out in the green MqtUU t-shirts for easy recognition. Two volunteers are needed at any given time, if there are enough helpers the "door shifts" could be less than an hour each.

Proceeds from the event will be distributed to the West Michigan Food Bank (serving two local pantries with an Ishpeming aggregation site), and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). The goal for the two-night fundraiser is to donate $3,000 to Feeding America and $1000 to UNICEF, which would be an increase of about $1000 over last year's donations. Call Dave if you'd like more information at 361-0553.

JOB POSTING

Religious Exploration Coordinator

How to Apply:

Submit a resume so it is received by
Nov. 15, 2014 to:

B. Michael
102 Wintergreen Trail
Marquette, MI 49855

Email: michael.barbara.102@gmail.com

Please include a cover letter and three references.

Religious Exploration Coordinator Position Available

Part-time position up to 15 hrs/wk

The ideal candidate embraces a liberal, curiosity of religion; has the ability to connect with children, youth, and adults; has excellent communication skills and experience with project planning, volunteer recruitment, and enthusiasm for service learning.

A minimum of a bachelor's degree with emphasis in education or childhood development is preferred.

Understanding of the Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism and its current focal points is a quality that could place the candidate above others.

If hired, the RE Coordinator will be expected to:

- Identify and recruit potential volunteers to assist with Sunday RE classes and special events for children and youth.
- Work effectively with children and youth and communicate well with adults.
- On Sunday mornings, ensure the smooth operation of RE classes which are led by volunteer members and will step in if a volunteer is not available.
- Gather materials, schedule speakers, reserve space, and handle other administrative skills to implement RE programs.
- Collaborate with the RE Committee, parents, and other interested members of the Marquette UU congregation to decide on appropriate curricula and class structures from Tapestry of Faith or RE Express, or to develop original RE programs for preschool children through high school youth. Establish goals and objectives for those RE programs and share the basic info in a brochure.
- With the RE Committee, schedule fundraisers, field trips, and meetings.
- Confer with parents and other congregation members to encourage support of and participation in RE activities.
- Maintain correspondence and communication with families and with committees in the congregation (regarding scheduling, programming, personnel issues, and networking)
- Administer reference/security checks for RE volunteers.
- Email monthly reports to the Mqt. UU Board of Trustees.
- Write and submit an RE column, which lists upcoming curricula and special events, to the Mqt UU Admin for the monthly Chronicle.
- Work with other individuals and groups within the congregation to set up child care for special programs.
- Coordinate the intergenerational story/lesson for Sunday services, working with service leaders and/or those who offer the main message for the morning.
- Abide by the Mqt. UU Personnel Guidelines.
- Pass the Michigan background check to work with children and youth.

Our own Maitri White will be performing in the MSHS Production of Irving Berlin's Annie Get Your Gun. Performances will run November 6-8, 2014 in Kaufman Auditorium. All performances start at 7 p.m. Tickets are on sale now at all NMU ticket outlets, online or by phone at 906-227-1032.
