Nothing like being together, no matter how large or small our gathering is. However, if you cannot make it on a Sunday morning, here is a UU option:

For the month of April - "Exploring Freedom"

As a Unitarian Universalist congregation with no geographical boundary, we (the Church of the Larger Fellowship - CLF - and Quest for Meaning) gather in global spiritual community to cultivate wonder, imagination, and the courage to act. Join us for worship Sundays at 8 PM EDT or Mondays at 2 PM EDT.

Hope those of you who could not be with us in Marquette on Sun. morning, April 3rd enjoyed wherever you were, are returning safely after spring break, are getting well, or whatever. I so appreciate our UU community!

April “Share the Plate” Recipient	Church of the Larger Fellowship's prison ministry outreach http://www.questformeaning.org/programs/prison-ministry/ More than two million people are incarcerated in prisons and jails across the United States. Like many Americans, most prisoners have never heard of Unitarian Universalism, and those who have 'non-traditional' spiritual beliefs often despair of finding a religious community that will respect their beliefs and encourage their spiritual growth while they are incarcerated.
UP UU SUMMER FEST August 6th & 7th @Bewabic	SAVE THE DATE: We are beginning to plan a U.P. UU Summer Fest at Bewabic State Park (http://www.michigandnr.com/parksandtrails/details.aspx?id=411&type=SPRK) on August 6th and 7th 2016 you can reserve a campsite at the link above. The plan at this point is to have a friendly Camp fire Saturday night August 6th and a service/potluck/BBQ on Sunday August 7th. We are just at the beginning stages of planning this out and hope to have fellowships in Marquette, the Keweenaw and Escanaba join in the fun. We hope by setting the date this early in advance we can have representation from all the UU UP groups. The Crystal Falls area was selected because it is central to all UU UP groups. Sound like fun? WE need help and suggestions. Contact Escanaba UU President joseph.mold@gmail.com
Summer Home Exchange Opportunity	We are a retired UU couple who is interested in spending the month of August up north in a clean private home with allergy controls: no pets, smoking, or molds. In exchange we offer our home in Asheville, NC. Is there a possibility that you could notify your congregants about our interest in a home exchange? Thank you so much! FROM: UUSC

From March 22 to April 22, we will embark together on a spiritual journey for climate justice.

Advancing the human rights of frontlines communities is a moral imperative.

As people of faith and conscience, we have a responsibility to defend our home and care for each other, working in solidarity with those most impacted by environmental destruction and climate crisis.

We envision

a future where those who disproportionately bear the burdens of climate change are leaders in the search for solutions, and their rights and needs are the bedrock of our collective climate justice work.

We commit to partnering with, following the leadership of, and taking action to support frontlines communities.
