7 Principles of Unitarian Universalism
Affirm & Promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

The Mission Statement Committee has drafted the following for the Congregation's consideration. A Mission Statement is defined as "a written declaration of an organization's core purpose and focus that normally remains unchanged over time. Properly crafted mission statements (1) serve as filters to separate what is important from what is not, (2) clearly state which markets will be served and how, and (3) communicate a sense of intended direction to the entire organization."

Ideally a mission statement is something a congregation can insert into its order of service, say in unison at services, and use to define our organization to outsiders.

Here is the Committee's draft Mission Statement:

We, the Marquette Unitarian Universalist Congregation, are Bound Together By a Core Belief in the Power of Love; and are Committed to Building Beloved Community.

We Care for, Nurture and Support the Spiritual Growth of One Another;
We Share Reverence for our Natural Environment and are Dedicated to the Respectful Stewardship of the Earth; and
We Work Together to Bend the Moral Arc of the Universe toward Justice.

The congregation is invited to offer feedback, reactions, suggestions, proposed edits, etc. on this proposal. Comments may be submitted via email to g.g. gordon, plumskiter@gmail.com, or to g.g. or Nancy Sullivan in person. An upcoming Adult Forum dedicated to a discussion of the proposal will be scheduled. Any and all input is invited and welcome.

UUA General Assembly ~ 2015 ~ Portland, Oregon June 24 – 28

Build a New Way at GA

This June in Portland, Oregon, our 2015 General Assembly (GA) will not just have green practices: we will work for climate justice. With Commit2Respond, a broad Unitarian Universalist movement, GA will build our capacities to: shift to a lower carbon future, advance the human rights of affected communities, and grow the climate justice movement.

Find out about Unitarian Universalist work for climate justice.

The GA 2015 theme is "Building a New Way." It's about more than climate justice. It's about breaking out of our old ways, and using our creativity to live into something new. At GA we worship, witness, learn, connect, and make policy for the Association through democratic process. Anyone who registers may attend; delegates from our member congregations may vote. Programs and childcare are available for children. Register here to participate in GA 2015 in person or virtually \(off-site\).
