We covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every being;

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Please come to the FREE Concert tonight at the MqtUU Meeting House and enjoy the Musical Stylings of the Babbas!

Join us as we explore the first issue of Seeker, a new UU World publication titled this time, "The Journey is the Joy: Introducing the Liberal Faith of the Unitarian Universalists." The discussion will include articles titled "Ten Things I Wish People Knew about Unitarian Universalism" and "What's a UU Pilgrimage?" as well as articles including intriguing comments like, "Over time, the good folks of that [UU] church loved up the scattered parts of me and guided me from shattered to whole." The forum is open to members, friends, and guests who want to learn more about Unitarian Universalism. Free copies of this first issue for all - to keep or pass on to someone.

Can You Help Our Local Homeless Friends

Here are some ways;

- Be the SignUpGenius! This is for the person who doesn't really need the person to person contact. Computer work mostly; help coordinators with the program if needed.
- Help with Home Warmings by going to the Warming Center, meet with the person, schedule a Home Warming, give things that we have from the basement. You'd then send out an invitation to other volunteers to show up with other needed items. Very rewarding.
- Recruitment Team to get more churches on board to host weeks, will be meeting again soon. We can use your help calling, visiting and giving presentations if you're comfortable with that.

For any of the above opportunities to love your neighbor, contact MJ at 360-5279.

Doug is looking for heavy hitters for fundraising. Is that you? Call him at 227-9171.

Like to cook and serve? Karen at the Warming Center can use you some mornings! Call her at 225-1521 or stop by and see her between 8am-noon.

You can contact us by signing up below also. We'll contact you then. God bless you!

Rev. Pinkney was convicted by an all white jury of tampering with re-call petitions with no evidence and sentenced to 2 to 10 years. Since 1999 he's been court watching and organizing against the takeover of this black community by the state of Michigan with the first emergency manager. The city had a prime piece of property on Lake Michigan as a park. The EM sold the park to a private corporation for a PGA golf course and luxury housing development. The re-call petition was to recall the mayor who rubber stamped the sale.

The power structure has harassed Rev. P to the point of imprisoning him for writing an article quoting scripture they felt was threatening. The array of people who've come to his defense has been amazing. They've shipped him to Marquette to get him out of the limelight and away from access by his family and supporters. I'm visiting as is one other person, plus gg is putting in her application to visit him. His case is on appeal to the MI Sup. Ct. but no ruling as yet.

FROM: Transition Marquette County

Who was around a few years back when we had the 100 Yarden Dash and Yarden Tours? The Dash seems to have dashed, but the Yarden Tours are back! The way it works is various households around Marquette open their garden/yarden/permaculture projects to the Transition community to come see, ask questions, get inspired, and so on. Sometimes light snacks are served, too !

This summer we have 5 yarden tours scheduled between now and mid-August:

1. Wed., July 20th @ 7 pm.- 430 W. Ridge: The Riesterer residence.
 2. Wed., July 27th @ 7 pm. - 1708 Woodland Ave.: The Fether residence.
 3. Sun., August 7th @ 3 pm. - 440 E. Prospect: The West residence.
 4. Sun., August 14th @ 3 pm. - 225 N. Fourth St.: The Climbing Co-op
 5. Sun., August 21st @ 3 pm. - Corner of Summit and Longyear: Superior Acre Permaculture Project
- You're invited -- always interesting, educational and an opportunity to talk with like-minded people in the community. Questions, comments, concerns email: transitionmarquette@gmail.com

Continued happy summertime to all!
