

This 'n' That

Date	Service (11 a.m.)	Forum (9:45 – 10:30a.m.)
Aug. 16	"Finding Your Mongoose" Service Leader: Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher. A folk tale from India holds a key to managing crises in our lives. When fear gets in our way, what might we do?	"Compassion, Belief, and Other Religious Ideas" What does "belief" mean to you? What do scholars of religious history know about that word? If not belief, what are religions about? Discussion facilitated by Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher.*

7 Principles of Unitarian Universalism
Affirm & Promote:
 The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
 Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
 Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
 A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
 The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
 The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
 Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

*Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher is 'Minister Emerita' of DuPage UU Church in Naperville, IL. Between babysitting gigs for her two granddaughters in Chicago, she works part time at various ministry opportunities. She has been a guest minister at MqtUU several times and is looking forward to visiting with us again.
