Our UU Principles
We covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every being;

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

MqtUU Points of Interest:

- Congratulations and Good Luck to Paul Wright, the new General Manager, of the New Barnes & Noble NMU Bookstore, as he heads into the crazy week before classes starts for the fall when everyone stocks up on school books and supplies.

- Kathy Klos and Fred Campbell won blue ribbons and best in show awards at the Marquette County Fair last week; Winning entries included a little canoe, Kathy's childhood snowshoes made for her by an Ojibwe craftsman when she was 3 years old, a doll from childhood, Fred's glass hatpin holder & carnival glass, and a photograph taken by Kathy. Congratulations!
