October 2	“The Dharma of September” Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher	Host: Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher

Our UU Principles
We covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every being;

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

“The Dharma of September” sermon about loss, as reflected in the coming loss of leaves and growth and harvest with the approaching winter. How is that reflected in our lives? What does Buddhism say about loss and diminishing its effects on us?
~Rev. Emmy Lou Belcher

Ya'll are invited to stay after the service, this Sunday, October 2 to enjoy some Food, Fun & Fellowship!

First Sunday Potluck Luncheon

Hamburgers and hotdogs will be provided! And now is a great time to share the bounty of the harvest and bring your favorite dish to share!

The work of the United Nations reaches every corner of the globe. Although best known for peacekeeping, peacebuilding, conflict prevention and humanitarian assistance, there are many other ways the United Nations and its System (specialized agencies, funds and programs) affect our lives and make the world a better place.

The Organization works on a broad range of fundamental issues, from sustainable development, environment and refugees protection, disaster relief, counter terrorism, disarmament and non-proliferation, to promoting democracy, human rights, governance, economic and social development and international health, clearing landmines, expanding food production, and more, in order to achieve its goals and coordinate

Help us be brave enough for life and love, and guide us in our search through doubt and darkness until we find the faith which knows no place or season — until we learn at last that though the very stars may wander, there is that within us which need never lose its way.
